

Pancreas

Tips:

- Normal tissue may not always be seen
- Right Limb - Duodenum is the landmark.
  - When scanning from a lateral approach the pancreas can be seen dorsal to the duodenum
  - Short Axis - start at the right kidney and slide cranial following the duodenum
- Left Limb - Triangle of landmarks: greater curvature of the stomach, cranial spleen, and left kidney
  - Follow the splenic vein from the spleen

Videos:

- Long Axis Right Limb
- Short Axis Right Limb
- Long Axis Left Limb

Images:

- If pathology is seen

